

Grievance Procedure

(Statutory)

Approved: Spring 2024

Next Review: Spring 2026

Equality Impact Assessment - Policy Review

In reviewing this policy, we have tried to make a positive impact on equality by considering and reducing or removing inequalities and barriers which already existed. We have ensured that this policy does not impact negatively on the dimensions of equality.

1

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 CEO/Headteachers/Trustees/Governors are advised to seek the advice of HR Advisers in the management of all complaints raised by employees, either formally or informally. 1.2 It is recognised that management structures/administrative arrangements will vary according to the size of the Trust and therefore, this procedure is limited to two formal stages only, ie with the procedure commencing at Stage Two.

1.3 'School days' refers to days on which the Trust is open to students, however, with the agreement of all parties these arrangements may be varied.

1.4 This procedure does not cover all circumstances regarding individual grievances and Headteachers and Trustees/ Governors are encouraged to seek the advice of advisers on matters of procedural interpretation.

1.5 Should a grievance be raised against the CEO or Headteacher s/he is advised to contact her/his professional association for advice.

2. PURPOSE

2.1 To promote the early, effective and satisfactory resolution of individual employment related grievances, by providing a structured framework through which individual members of staff can seek redress.

2.2 Broadly, a grievance may be raised about any matter arising from employment, including grievances amongst members of staff, with the Headteachers, Chief Executive Officer, or the Trust

Board/Chair of the Board.

- 2.3 This policy also applies to instances of alleged bullying or harassment in the workplace. The Trust Board/Chief Executive Officer of The Roseland Multi-Academy Trust (Trust) has expectations about the standards of language and behaviour that all members of staff have the right to expect and are expected to show to others in their communication and behaviour at work. It aims to assist in the development and maintenance of a working environment in which bullying and harassment are known to be unacceptable and to ensure that, where it occurs, there are adequate arrangements in place for raising and dealing with it and for preventing reoccurrence. In circumstances where an employee holds a concern of this nature, this procedure provides the framework to address the concern.
- 2.4 The Chief Executive Officer, other managers and the Trust Board have specific responsibilities to direct the work of members of staff and to manage performance. It is not the intention of the application of this procedure to affect the Chief Executive Officer, other managers or the Trust Board from exercising these responsibilities appropriately and fairly. This includes issuing instructions, providing critical feedback to allow employees to improve their performance, taking action to control absence or to deal with misconduct, even whether employees feel that the action is unjustified or unfair.
- 2.5 This procedure is not the appropriate recourse for the following employment matters:
- Any outcome of a disciplinary process (in such circumstances the Appeals' Procedure established within the Disciplinary Procedure applies);
 - Any issue relating to the pay grade of a school support staff job;
 - Any issue relating to the pay progression (in such circumstances the Pay Policy provides a process for staff to seek redress with regard to any concern relating to pay progression);
 - Whistleblowing (in such circumstances, the Trust's Whistleblowing Procedure applies);
 - Matters relating to the rules of the Local Government Pension Scheme or Teachers' Pension Scheme (such matters will be referred to the Scheme Administrators and ultimately Pensions' Ombudsman).

2

3. SCOPE

The procedure applies to all staff employed at The Roseland Multi-Academy Trust.

4. POLICY STATEMENT

- 4.1 The Trust values the contribution made by all members of staff to the delivery of a high quality education service for the benefit of the Trust and the local communities. We recognise that the quality of this contribution will be influenced and enhanced if all members of staff can enjoy a working environment which supports and encourages them in working to their full potential.
- 4.2 The Trust is committed to promoting and sustaining a working environment in which all members of staff feel valued and respected and in which they cooperate and communicate effectively with each other in seeking to achieve the highest standards of work performance. It is recognised that situations may arise where a member of staff may wish to seek redress for grievances arising from their employment. Accordingly, the Trust is committed to ensuring that staff are able to raise grievances in the first place, and where possible, have them resolved without unreasonable delay and to the satisfaction of all concerned.
- 4.3 Most issues should be discussed and can be dealt with satisfactorily within the course of normal working relationships where staff should feel that their problems and opinions can be discussed frankly and freely with each other and/or with their line manager or member of the Leadership Team.
- 4.4 However, where an employment-related individual grievance has not been resolved informally or where it is considered inappropriate to resolve the issue on an informal basis, the staff member will:

- be given a fair hearing on any grievance;
- have the right to take the issue to the Chief Executive Officer/representative of a school's management team and/or representative of the Trust Board as appropriate;
- if still not resolved to the complainant's satisfaction, they have the right to take the issue further to a Committee of Trustees by way of an appeal.

4.5 Where the procedure is invoked, the Trust is committed to ensuring that the grievance is addressed as quickly as is reasonably practicable.

4.6 The Trust is committed to fair and respectful treatment of all staff. Where an employee raises a concern in respect of their employment, he/she will not suffer from any detriment or less favourable treatment as a consequence of raising a concern or making a complaint. The Trust is committed to this principle in its application of the Grievance Procedure. The Trust's Whistleblowing Policy also enforces this principle.

5. POLICY STATEMENT REGARDING DIGNITY AT WORK

5.1 Any language or behaviour which has the effect of undermining, humiliating or threatening another person, including harassment and bullying, is unacceptable and will be neither permitted nor condoned. We believe that most members of staff will actively support this commitment and will use language and behaviour that is consistent with our expectations. We also recognise, however, that we need to have clear arrangements in place for raising and addressing any instance of the use of language and behaviour that is incompatible with these expectations.

5.2 The Trust will demonstrate its commitment to a working environment and working relationships which are based on respect for and recognition of the individual contribution made by all members of staff by:

- clearly communicating the standards that all members of staff have the right to expect and are expected to demonstrate to others in all workplace communications;
- equipping the Chief Executive Officer, Headteachers and line managers with the knowledge and skills required to influence a positive working environment and working relationships;

3

- alerting all members of staff to the type of language and behaviour that is not acceptable and, where this occurs, how this will be dealt with;
- identifying a range of sources of information and assistance for members of staff to help them decide what to do if they experience unacceptable language or behaviour;
- recognising a Grievance Complaints' Procedure that establishes appropriate informal and formal arrangements for members of staff to raise instances of unacceptable language or behaviour as set out in this document;
- ensuring that complaints are handled sensitively and are fully investigated through appropriate procedures;

5.3 The Trust is committed to protecting employees against unacceptable behaviour of this nature that may be encountered by employees through contact with representatives from the wider community in the context of their work, ie: parents, students or members of the public. The processes and strategies available for dealing with issues of this nature are set out in Appendix 3 of this Procedure. Further information and guidance on the definitions of bullying and harassment is provided in Appendix 2.

6. INFORMAL APPROACH AND MEDIATION

6.1 Attempts should always be made to resolve workplace grievances on an informal basis. Even if the problem relates to senior management or decisions made by senior management, attempts should still be made to resolve this issue on an informal basis and directly with the person(s) concerned.

- 6.2 It is important that any issue is raised as soon as possible after the event has occurred, so that resentment or worry does not build up. Also if an investigation is required, this can take place as soon as possible in order to ensure clear and accurate details are recalled before memories fade.
- 6.3 Where the aggrieved employee holds a grievance with a work colleague or manager, attempts should be made to meet with the other party on an informal basis to discuss the situation and attempt to resolve the concern. This informal process should be encouraged and managed by an appropriate manager or senior manager not directly involved in the case. The manager should conduct a facilitated meeting, taking into account arrangements that are mutually agreeable to all parties, in order to encourage an open dialogue between the parties with a view to resolving the concerns held by the aggrieved employee at the earliest opportunity. The aggrieved employee may request to attend an informal meeting with a trade union representative for the purpose of attempting to resolve a work-related complaint informally. Such a request will not unreasonably be refused.
- 6.4 As an alternative to a facilitated meeting and prior to evoking the formal procedure, formal mediation may be arranged between the relevant parties. Formal mediation can be arranged through the appointment of an independent trained mediator. Formal mediation is only a viable option where both parties agree to engage in the mediation process and agree to commit to a Mediation Agreement at the conclusion of the process. In accordance with the principles of mediation, mediation meetings are held with the two parties concerned and the mediator only. Trade union representatives or companions will not attend mediation meetings on either party's behalf. Further information on mediation is provided in Appendix 5.

4

7. FORMAL PROCEDURE

- 7.1 Where an employment problem is considered by the member of staff to be of a sufficiently serious nature to be termed a 'grievance', the matter has not been resolved as a result of an informal approach or it is considered inappropriate to deal with the matter on an informal basis, the member of staff may invoke the Grievance Procedure. This procedure is designed to achieve the objective referred to in the above policy statement in an effective and efficient manner.
- 7.2 It will not normally be considered appropriate for an employee to pursue a formal grievance unless first of all the issue has been raised with his or her line manager and informal resolution has been considered where appropriate.
- 7.3 An employee wishing to invoke the procedure should normally raise his/her concerns within 20 school days of the event or the latest in a series of events that has resulted in the grievance. Early notification of a grievance will help ensure early resolution.
- 7.4 At all stages of the formal procedure, the member of staff raising the grievance is entitled to take advice from and/or be accompanied or represented by a workplace colleague or trade union representative. Staff are encouraged to consult their trade union representatives or professional associations prior to invoking the grievance procedure.
- 7.5 Where the member of staff chooses not to be accompanied or represented by a trade union representative or workplace colleague it will be noted in the written summary that representation was offered and declined.

7.6 The Trust is committed to addressing employee grievances in a timely manner and in all cases will endeavour to adhere to the time limits referred to throughout this procedure. However, parties may, by mutual agreement, modify the time limits referred to in the procedure. In certain circumstances this may not be practicable, for example, delays in convening meetings due to school holiday periods and complex cases requiring lengthy investigations. In the interests of best practice, fair treatment and the health and wellbeing of staff, meetings may be held during school holidays with the agreement of all parties (ie the staff member concerned, trade union representative/workplace colleague, investigating manager/Trustee). If, however, this is not agreeable to any party, the employee will be kept informed of the progress of the procedure.

8. STAGE 1

1. If a member of staff has a work-related concern and the matter cannot be resolved informally, s/he should raise the matter formally with his/her line manager by completing the Grievance Form (see Appendix 1). Where the concern relates to the line manager, s/he should raise the matter with the Chief Executive Officer, Headteacher or appropriate member of the Leadership Team by completing the Grievance Form. It is recommended that the employee contacts his/her trade union representative for advice and support in initiating the formal Grievance Procedure.
2. If the employee's concern relates to a senior manager or Chief Executive Officer, the formal Procedure will be invoked at Stage 2.
3. On notification of a formal grievance, an investigatory meeting will be arranged with the employee by the manager to which the concern was raised as soon as possible. This meeting will normally take place within 10 school days of notification of the grievance (subject to 7.6). The employee may attend the meeting accompanied by a work colleague or a trade union representative.
4. At the meeting the manager will listen to the details of the grievance and will endeavour to devise an appropriate resolution. In the event of the requirement for further investigation to be undertaken, the manager will clarify this at the close of the meeting and give an indication of the likely timescales required for the completion of the investigation. The manager will arrange for notes of the meeting to be taken, copies of which will be provided to all parties.

5

5. Once the manager hearing the grievance has completed any further investigation required and reached a decision, he/she will confirm the outcome of the grievance, including any proposed resolutions, in writing to the employee. Normally, written confirmation of the outcome of the grievance will be provided within 5 school days of the grievance meeting, with the exception of cases where further investigation is required. In such circumstances, the manager hearing the case will determine an appropriate timescale with due consideration to the need for a swift resolution whilst allowing sufficient time to conduct the necessary additional investigations.
6. In exceptional circumstances, where the staff member considers that the issue is not appropriate to raise with his/her immediate line manager, senior management representative or Chief Executive Officer, s/he may initiate the formal procedure at Stage 2. Circumstances where it may be appropriate to invoke the procedure at Stage 2 would include situations where the resolution sought may require the authority of the Trust Board.

9. STAGE 2

- a. If the staff member is not satisfied with the outcome of the grievance determined at Stage 1 of the procedure, disagrees with the decision that was made at the meeting or cannot accept the proposed period before action is to be taken, s/he may decide to refer the matter to Stage 2 of the procedure by referring the matter to a Committee of Trustees. Additionally, there may be circumstances which are considered to be sufficiently serious to warrant the consideration of the Trust Board, in which case the procedure should be invoked at Stage 2.

- b. Where an employee raises a grievance against the Chief Executive Officer/Headteacher, such matters will be automatically considered by Trustees at Stage 2 of the Grievance Procedure.
 - c. Grievances raised under Stage 2 of the procedure will be heard by a panel of no less than three Trustees.
 - d. To invoke Stage 2 of the Procedure, the employee must confirm in writing the details of the grievance by completing the Grievance Form (Appendix 1), or by confirming in writing the reasons for continued dissatisfaction in respect of the outcome of the grievance at Stage 1 of the procedure. The written confirmation for invoking the procedure at Stage 2 should be addressed to the Chair of the Trust Board.
 - e. Where Stage 2 of the Grievance Procedure is invoked as a consequence of the employee's concern not being resolved to his/her satisfaction at Stage 1 of the procedure, this must be confirmed in writing to the Chair of the Trust Board within 10 school days of receipt of the written outcome at Stage 1 of the Grievance Procedure.
 - f. Where Stage 2 of the procedure is invoked as the first stage of recourse, the employee is required to complete the Grievance Form as a means of initiating the formal Procedure within 20 school days of the event or the latest in a series of events representing the employee's concerns. The employee should submit the Grievance Form to the Chair of the Trust Board. It is recommended that the employee contacts their trade union representative for advice and support in initiating the formal Grievance Procedure.
 - g. On notification of a formal grievance at Stage 2 as the first stage of recourse, the Chair of the Trust Board will appoint a representative on behalf of the Trust Board as an investigating officer to investigate the employee's concerns. It is recommended that the Chair of the Trust Board also contacts their HR Adviser to consider the appropriateness of appointing a HR representative to assist the investigating officer. An investigatory meeting will be arranged with the employee by the investigating officer as soon as possible. This meeting will normally take place within 10 school days of notification of the grievance (subject to 7.6). The employee may attend the meeting accompanied by a work colleague or a trade union representative. Following the investigation meeting, the investigating officer may undertake further investigations as is deemed appropriate to ascertain the full facts. Having ascertained the full information, the investigating officer will complete an investigation report.
- 6
- h. Where Stage 2 is invoked as a consequence of an employee's dissatisfaction with the outcome determined at Stage 1 of the procedure, a Panel of Trustees will be convened for a grievance hearing at Stage 2 within 20 school days (where practicable) of receipt of the employee's written notification of his/her dissatisfaction with the outcome determined at Stage 1. Additionally, where the circumstances of the concern are such that the matter is addressed at Stage 2 from the outset, a Panel of Trustees will be convened for a grievance hearing at Stage 2 within 20 school days of completion of the investigation report by the investigating officer.
 - i. Prior to the Grievance Hearing, the parties concerned will make their submissions to the Panel of Trustees who should be sent all relevant documents in advance of the hearing no later than one calendar week before the grievance hearing. It is strongly recommended that the Panel of Trustees invite an HR representative to act as adviser to the Panel.
 - j. The employee will be informed of the date of the grievance hearing in writing and will be offered the opportunity to submit any documents to the Panel of Trustees in advance of the hearing, but no later than 5 school days prior to the hearing. All documents to be presented at the hearing in relation to the investigation of the grievance or documents relating to earlier considerations of the employee's grievance at Stage 1 of the procedure where applicable will be provided to the employee no later than 5 school days prior to the hearing.
 - k. At the Grievance Hearing, the employee will have the opportunity to present his/her concerns along with any evidence or documents, which he/she considers to be pertinent to the concerns. The employee may be accompanied at the hearing by a work colleague or a trade union representative. As an alternative to the employee presenting their case, the employee's representative may present the case on behalf of the employee. The manager of the employee or Chief Executive Officer/Headteacher has the right to present a response to the concerns or, in cases where Stage 1 has been invoked, may present information and explanation on the outcome of the Grievance at Stage 1 of the Procedure for the Trustees' consideration.

- l. The decision regarding the outcome of the grievance may be given at the hearing but will be confirmed in writing within 5 school days of the hearing. If it is not possible to respond within the specified time period, the employee will be given an explanation for the delay and advised when a response will be provided.
- m. See Appendix 4 – Procedure to Be Followed at a Stage 2 Grievance Hearing. n. See Appendix 6 – Flowchart of Grievance Process and Timescales.

10. APPEALS

- 10.1 The employee has the right of appeal against the outcome at Stage 2 of the Grievance Procedure if dissatisfied with any aspect of the outcome.
- 10.2 Grievance appeals will be heard by a Panel of no less than three Trustees who have had no prior involvement in the case. The procedure to be followed at the Appeal meeting is as set out in Appendix 3. The number of Trustees on the Appeals Panel should be the same as the number of Trustees who heard the grievance initially.
- 10.3 An employee wishing to exercise the right of appeal may do so by confirming his/her reasons for appeal in writing to the Chair of the Trust Board within 5 school days of receipt of the written outcome of the Grievance at Stage 2 of the procedure.
- 10.4 The Appeals' Panel of Trustees will hold the appeal, where practicable, within 20 school days of the receipt of the written request for an appeal. The employee will be informed of the date of the appeal hearing in writing and will be offered the opportunity to submit any documents to the Panel of Trustees in advance of the hearing, but no later than 5 school days prior to the hearing.
- 10.5 The manager/Chief Executive Officer/Headteacher previously involved in addressing the grievance will also have the opportunity to make submissions to the Appeals' Panel of Trustees in response to the employee's appeal. The Appeals' Panel of Trustees should be sent all relevant documents in advance of the hearing and no later than one calendar week before the hearing. It is strongly recommended that the Panel of Trustees invite a HR Advisor as appropriate. 10.6 All documents to be presented at the Hearing in relation to the appeal will be provided to the employee no later than 5 school days prior to the hearing. The procedure for the Appeal Hearing is set out in Appendix 4.

7

- 10.7 At the Appeal Hearing, the employee will have the opportunity to present his/her reasons for dissatisfaction with the outcome of the grievance process determined at the previous stages of the procedure, along with any evidence or documents, which he/she consider to be pertinent to his/her grounds of appeal. If appropriate, the manager of the employee or Chief Executive Officer/Headteacher may present a response to the appeal that may include presentation of information on the outcome of the grievance at earlier stages of the procedure for the panel's consideration.
- 10.8 The decision regarding the outcome of the appeal may be given at the hearing but will be confirmed in writing within 5 school days of the hearing. If it is not possible to respond within the specified time period, the employee will be given an explanation for the delay and advised when a response will be provided.
- 10.9 The decision of the Appeal Committee of Trustees is final.

11. CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER GRIEVANCES

- 11.1 Where the Chief Executive Officer has a grievance, s/he should first endeavour to resolve the matter by direct approach to the relevant person. If the grievance remains unresolved and arises from actions/decisions of the Trust Board, s/he should initially seek to resolve it in discussion with the Chair of the Trust Board.
- 11.2 Should the grievance remain unresolved, the Chief Executive Officer should lodge the formal grievance in writing to the Chair of the Trust Board.
- 11.3 The Chair of the Trust Board will arrange a Grievance Hearing chaired by a Committee of Trustees as per paragraph 7.9 (Points c & h-m) above, within 20 school days (where practicable) of receipt of written notification of the grievance. The Procedure for the Hearing will be as set out in Appendix 4. The Panel of Trustees convened to consider grievances raised by the Chief Executive Officer shall comprise of no less than three Trustees.
- 11.4 The Chief Executive Officer, and any other staff member who may be involved, is entitled to be accompanied at the meeting, by a workplace colleague or a trade union representative. 11.5 If the grievance is still unresolved, the Chief Executive Officer may appeal to the Appeals' Committee of the Trust Board in accordance with this Procedure. The Chief Executive Officer must confirm the grounds for appeal in writing, within 5 school days of receipt of the outcome of the grievance at the previous stage of the procedure. The Appeal's Panel of Trustees established in accordance with this procedure will hear the appeal, where practicable, within 20 school days of receipt of the written notification of the appeal. The Appeals' Panel of Trustees shall comprise no less than three Trustees who have had no prior involvement in the case. The decision of the Appeals' Panel of Trustees will be given at the hearing and confirmed in writing within 5 school days.
- 11.6 The decision of the Appeals' Panel of Trustees will be final.
- 11.7 At any stage of the procedure, the Chief Executive Officer is recommended to seek advice from an appropriate source such as their professional association. For the advice to be as informed and effective as possible, it may be necessary to provide to them copies of all documentation associated with the grievance.

Appendix 1

STRICTLY PRIVATE & CONFIDENTIAL

GRIEVANCE FORM

To be completed by the employee to instigate a Formal Grievance. (The formal procedure should only be used when attempts at informal resolution have been tried and not succeeded.)

Name:	School:
	Department:
Job Title:	Telephone Extension:

Line Manager:	Telephone Extension:
Name of Representative:	Telephone Extension:

1. Brief outline of the nature and reason for the grievance:

2. I have discussed this matter informally with my line manager and/or senior manager (if appropriate) but I am still dissatisfied because:

3. What specific action would you like taken in order to resolve this issue?

4. Please give names of any witnesses who may be able to offer further information.

5. I am prepared to consider mediation prior to invoking this formal Stage:

9

Yes/No (delete as applicable)

If you are not prepared to consider mediation, please explain your reasons if you are able to do so.

Signed: Date:

To be completed by the employee's line manager on receipt of grievance*:

(*NB: where complaint relates to the employee's line manager, it is not applicable for this section to be completed)

- a. Details of discussions held in an attempt to resolve the issue informally (or Stages 1 or 2), please provide dates of any meetings and notes where available.

Line Manager's Signature: Date.....

Appendix 2

BULLYING & HARASSMENT: GUIDANCE & DEFINITIONS

Unacceptable Behaviour – bullying and harassment

Unacceptable behaviour can generally be described as bullying or harassing language and behaviour that is unwanted and which a person finds intimidating, embarrassing, humiliating or offensive.

This language or behaviour may be being exhibited by an individual consciously or unconsciously, ie they may or may not be intending to bully/harass. However, the intention or non-intention to bully/harass should not be the determining factor in assessing whether or not someone has been exposed to bullying/harassment – it is the deed itself and the impact on the recipient that determines this.

More specific information concerning bullying and harassment is given below.

Bullying

Bullying is the use of language or behaviour either publicly or in private which has the effect of threatening, humiliating, undermining or demeaning the recipient. Typically, it consists of a series of incidents which may be trivial in themselves but have a cumulative effect on the recipient. It may arise between individual colleagues, between a group of employees and a colleague or between a manager and a subordinate.

Bullying differs from harassment in that the focus is less likely to be on a specific feature of an individual, such as gender, race or disability, than on the competence, or alleged lack of competence, of the person being bullied.

Specific examples of bullying behaviour include:

- exclusion or victimisation of an individual;
- unfairly withholding information that has an impact on a person's performance;
- constant changing of work deadlines or work guidelines to specifically undermine an individual's effectiveness;
- repeated accusation of making errors without justification;
- humiliating someone in front of others;
- deliberately ignoring opinions/views of an individual;
- removing areas of responsibility without justification;
- verbal, physical threats or intimidation;
- copying memos that are critical about someone to others who do not need to know;
- overbearing supervision/excessive monitoring or work without justification;
- deliberately undermining a competent worker by overloading them;
- preventing individuals progressing by intentionally blocking promotion or training opportunities.

This is not an exhaustive list.

Harassment

Harassment in general terms is unwanted conduct affecting the dignity of men and women in the workplace and includes any verbal or physical abuse, unwanted behaviour or advances. This would also include any form of non-verbal harassment such as harassment via email. The actions or comments are viewed as demeaning and unacceptable to the recipient. Some forms of harassment can also have a specific meaning under existing legislation (eg sex, race and disability) and can amount to unlawful discrimination under the appropriate legislation.

11

Harassment can be on the grounds of a variety of attributes including sex, race, disability, religion, sexual orientation, age, social background, political belief and trade union membership. Specific examples of what could be viewed as harassment in relation to these attributes include:

- demeaning/offensive remarks;
- displaying offensive/explicit material;
- inappropriate/abusive language;
- inappropriate stereotyping resulting in employment opportunities not being afforded to an individual;
- exclusion from workplace talk/activities;
- offensive jokes;
- innuendos and teasing.

This is not an exhaustive list.

Advice and Support

Any member of staff who believes they are experiencing bullying or harassment may seek advice and support through various options. This includes established channels to seek advice and support (eg through their line manager, a Trustee or trade union representative).

Members of staff may also choose to seek professional support through the Trust's Occupational Health provider or to talk through problems with a qualified counsellor. This service may also be helpful to members of staff against whom an allegation of bullying or harassment has been made.

Other assistance is available through contacting helplines that have been established by external organisations/charities.

Seeking advice and support through any of the channels described above enables members of staff to discuss problems in confidence, to help them decide if they are experiencing bullying/harassment and to discuss any possible strategies to cope with what they are experiencing (for example, approaching a bully/harasser to inform them that their behaviour/language is upsetting, keeping a diary of incidents and confiding in another party for support or information as to how to make a complaint).

Specific details are listed below.

Internal

Chief Executive Officer/Headteacher/Line Manager/Trustee
Colleague
Trade Union Representative
Occupational Health

External

National Workplace Bullying Advice Line
Andrea Adams Trust
Supportline
Equality for Human Rights Commission
Terence Higgins Trust
Samaritans

Appendix 3

Bullying/Harassment by Students/Parents/the Public

Members of staff, and members of the Trust Board, may encounter bullying or harassment by students/parents/the public in the course of their work. Anyone experiencing such behaviour can expect the active support of the Trust Board, Chief Executive Officer, Headteacher or appropriate senior member of staff to address the situation.

The Trust is committed to protecting members of staff whilst at work and to that end must seek to identify potential areas where members of staff may be vulnerable and to reduce the associated risks.

Failure to do so could constitute a failure in the Trust's duty of care to members of staff.

The Trust should have clearly laid out and well publicised procedures to deal effectively with such situations. It may be appropriate for the Trust to take account of any local policy on violent, threatening or abusive behaviour from students/parents/the public, such as a Behaviour Support Plan and DfE guidelines.

Members of staff complaining of bullying or harassment by students/parents/the public should report the matter to their Headteacher. What action is taken will be a matter of management discretion. The complainant's perception of what has occurred will be taken fully into account when reaching a decision.

Members of the Trust Board who feel they are experiencing bullying or harassment by students/parents/the public should report the matter to the Chair of the Trust Board.

Bullying of Students/Parents/the Public by Members of Staff

Bullying/harassment of students/parents/the public by members of staff will be dealt with under the School's Disciplinary Procedure.

Bullying/Harassment Outside of Work

Where bullying/harassment takes place outside of working hours but is in some way linked to a working relationship, members of staff and the Trust Board are still entitled to raise the issue and make use of the informal or formal procedure of this policy.

Criminal Offences

If a criminal offence such as harassing phone calls, physical assault or indecent exposure takes place in the workplace, nothing in this policy is intended to prevent or dissuade an individual from contacting the police.

Anonymous Allegations

This policy and procedure encourages members of staff to put their name to complaints. Anonymous allegations are difficult to substantiate/prove and will only be investigated further where there is a serious allegation which is linked to the categories listed in relation to the Whistleblowing Procedure. If there is insufficient evidence to proceed the allegation will not be investigated.

Appendix 4

PROCEDURE TO BE ADOPTED AT STAGE 2 GRIEVANCE HEARINGS AND GRIEVANCE APPEAL HEARINGS HEARD BY A PANEL/COMMITTEE OF TRUSTEES

1. The aggrieved employee (or his/her representative) shall put forward the complaint.
2. The line manager/investigating officer shall have the opportunity to ask questions of the aggrieved employee (or his/her representative) and any witnesses called in support.
3. The Committee of the Trust Board may ask questions of the aggrieved employee (or his/her representative) and witnesses.

4. Witnesses called by the aggrieved employee shall withdraw after having given evidence.
5. The line manager/investigating officer shall respond, giving the reason for not upholding the grievance at an earlier stage in the procedure.
6. The aggrieved employee (or his/her representative) shall have the opportunity to ask questions of the line manager/investigating officer and witnesses called in support.
7. The Committee of the Trust Board may ask questions of the line manager/investigating officer and witnesses.
8. Witnesses called by the line manager/investigating officer shall withdraw.
9. The aggrieved employee (or his/her representative) shall have the opportunity to sum up the case, if desired.
10. The line manager/investigating officer shall sum up his/her views on the matter, if desired. 11.

The aggrieved employee, representative and line manager/investigating officer shall withdraw.

12. The Committee of the Trust Board and HR adviser shall deliberate in private, only recalling the line manager/investigating officer and the aggrieved employee to clear points of uncertainty on evidence already given. If recall is necessary both parties shall return, even if only one party is concerned with the point giving rise to doubt.
13. The Committee of the Trust Board may announce their decision at the hearing, but will confirm their decision in writing within 5 school days (one calendar week) of the hearing.

Appendix 5

Mediation

Mediation can provide an early informal process for resolving conflict between staff by involving an independent impartial person who will help two individuals or groups reach an acceptable and realistic solution.

The aim is for mediation to be the first choice for resolving conflict, making the use of formal grievance procedures unnecessary, or a last resort. The advantage of mediation is the range of possible outcomes and the flexibility that it offers both parties, taking into account the fact that, very often, both parties must continue to work together on a daily basis.

Mediation is a highly effective method of resolving grievances, when the issue has not been resolved by informal discussion. It is strongly recommended that mediation is used before proceeding to the formal grievance procedure.

Refusal to participate in mediation will not bar employees from invoking the formal Grievance Procedure but it is recommended as a useful and constructive way of resolving issues, especially as both parties will usually have to remain working together at the end of the process.

Principles of Mediation

Mediation is a voluntary process which seeks to resolve complaints at an early stage and to provide an opportunity for the respective parties to discuss and search for alternative solutions together. It requires the individuals to take responsibility for the consequences of their decisions. In this respect it is an ideal way of addressing issues before formal grievance processes are put into place. Mediation may also be used during the formal process of grievance resolution providing all parties agree to this approach. Mediation is not prescriptive. It helps the parties involved to make progress in resolving their differences. It does not make judgments or determine outcomes.

How does Mediation work in practice?

A mediator will usually meet the parties separately, perhaps more than once and then bring the parties together. At the separate meetings the mediator will ask questions to establish the nature of the complaint and any underlying causes. They will also explain their role, the rules of confidentiality, the steps in the mediation process and ask if the parties have any ground rules they wish to put forward for the joint meeting.

At the start of the joint mediation meeting the mediator will remind the parties of the mediator's role, mediation process, confidentiality and any agreed ground rules. The mediator will help facilitate the discussion between parties and, get people talking and listening and support them in reaching a joint agreement.

Part of the mediator's role is to help the parties explore the perceptions each individual or group has of the conflict – getting behind the emotion and focusing on the key issues and concerns. The mediator will help the parties identify the critical issues and barriers to resolution and facilitate discussion in order for the parties to identify practical solutions.

Mediation Meetings

The mediator will arrange a suitable venue and make arrangements for the parties to attend in a confidential and secure manner. The mediator will welcome the parties, set the scene and check that all parties are still willing to proceed with the mediation session. They will agree the ground rules and clarify the areas of conflict. Both parties will be given the opportunity to state their point of view and to be fully heard. Open and honest communication between parties will be encouraged, with the aim of resolving their conflict and building effective future working relationships.

15

Mediation will seek to achieve:

- options;
- solve problems or resolve conflict;
- constructive agreements;

- disclosures during the mediation meetings.

In the event that any party involved in the mediation process discloses personal information which suggests that further intervention or support could be helpful, then the mediator will discuss this in confidence with the individual involved and, by agreement, arrange for follow-up by an appropriate representative from the school management team or Trust Board.

Outcome

The mediation will conclude when all parties have agreed that they have a clear understanding of the issues and what has been agreed. If a resolution has been reached, a written agreement will be drawn up for both parties and the mediator to sign. This is not a legal document and will be written in clear simple language. If the issue has not been resolved, then recourse can be made to the Grievance Procedure.

Documentation

Any notes prepared by the mediator will be destroyed at the conclusion of the process and will not be disclosed to any of the parties who are the subject of the mediation or any third parties for whatever reason. The only documentation retained will be copies of the agreement as signed and retained by the two parties. The mediator does not keep a copy of the written agreement.

Confidentiality - no disclosure at future stages

In the event that the matter is not resolved through mediation and the complaint progresses to a formal grievance, no information from any part of the mediation process will be disclosed.

Follow up Meetings / Availability of Mediators

Follow-up meetings will be agreed by the parties as deemed necessary. It is usual to have only one follow-up meeting with the mediator.

resolution/mediation

Resolved?

Yes No Complete Grievance

Form

20 school days of event/s

End of process
Employee raises complaint

Does complaint relate to

20 school days of event/s

Seek informal

No line manager? Yes

Yes No End

& conducts investigation. IO submits report to Panel of Trustees.

Stage 1:

Line manager convenes Grievance

Meeting + any further 10 school days of receipt necessary investigation.

Stg 2 Grievance Hearing

Line manager confirms outcome in writing.

5 school days

20 school days

Outcome confirmed in writing

5 school days

Stage 2:

Trust Board appoints Investigating Officer who holds investigation meeting

Resolved?

Resolved?

End Yes No

Trustees appointed & Appeal Hearing held.

5 school days

Outcome confirmed in

20 school days

writing End

5 school days

Appeal lodged by employee.

Appeals' Panel of